

WELCOME TO THE MAUMEE ROTARY CLUB

October 1, 2008

District Governor David V. Daugherty

LAST WEEK AS REPORTED BY OUR PRESIDENT

“Everyone had a great time on a beautiful autumn day. The President had “ringer” partners Dussel, Fish and O’Bryant but could not score well enough for 1st place bragging rights, probably the President’s fault. Practice is the battle cry for next years outing.”

Here are the numbers from last week golf outing:

We had 23 golfers

30 people attended the meeting with over 30 meals served.

BEST PART: $1080 was raised for the Foundation!

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Bob Adams is in need of help on Friday, October 3, 2008 at 6:00 p.m. We have an auction package dinner that needs to be prepared at Bill Schmidt’s house that evening. Available contact Bob at radams@pureh2otech.com

AUCTION ITEMS

Remember: Silent and Oral Auction Items are due from October 1 – November 22.

AUCTION MEETING

Our next auction meeting will be Wednesday, October 8, 2008 at 6:00 p.m. at Julie Oswald’s house.

LIBRARY CASES

On December 6, 2008, we would like to begin to put together the Maumee Rotarian display cases at the Maumee Library. We are currently looking for any history you may have from your years as a Rotarian. If you have anything, please bring it to a Rotary meeting. All we ask is that you date it and if you have a story to put that with it. Thank you in advance for your help!

SHELTER BOX

As many of may recall, a few weeks ago, Joe Coley from the East Manatee Rotary Club in Florida spoke to the group about Shelter Boxes. The Shelter Box provides shelter and warmth for up to 10 people for 6 months. Many of the Maumee Rotarians thought it would be great if we could $1,000 to purchase a Shelter Box. Starting at this week’s meeting we will have a bowl out for ShelterBox donations. Please help us raise the money for such a worthy cause

BIRTHDAY BOTTLE

Is it your birthday! Do not forget to bring your birthday bottle to Rotary!

UPCOMING EVENTS

Saturday, November 29, 2008: Holiday Hustle Light Parade and 5K Run. Maumee Rotary will be collecting food for the Northwest Ohio Food Bank during this event. We are looking for volunteers to help and asking that everyone bring 2 non-perishable food items to the parade.

Mark your calendar now for Saturday, December 20, 2008, as we ring the bells at The Andersons for The Salvation Army

LAST WEEK’S WINNER

The ace of spades was not drawn, so the pot grows to $128.00, with 50 cards left!
